KEVIN FRANK

Kevin can currently be seen as the host of Life Network's Pet Project, which has received 4 Gemini nominations including Best Host in a Lifestyle & Information Program.

Kevin has been a professional actor for 18 years. During this time he has performed in over 60 television commercials and has made countless appearances on popular series television. He has guested on shows like Street Legal (CBC) Due South (CTV,CBS) The Red Green Show (CHCH) Twice In a Lifetime (CTV) and Traders (Global). Kevin hosted the popular kids game show Kidstreet (Global) for five years and co-starred with Walter Matthau and Carol Burnett in The Marriage Fool.

Kevin can be heard as several of the voices in the big screen debut of Thomas the Tank Engine. Kevin can be seen as "Leonard" in The Endless Grind on the Comedy Network, and recently guest starred on the Royal Canadian Air Farce.

Kevin began his career studying improvisational comedy with The Second City in Toronto. He rose through the ranks eventually performing on the main stage at the Old Firehall. He is now one of their instructors and teaches improv to today's new hopefuls. He is a founding member of the comedy troupe The Parts, who have spent the past 14 years working together.

Every other Thursday you can find Kevin sitting behind the drum kit keeping time for the band Glendale 1 who are currently recording their new CD.

Friends for years, Kevin Scotty, and Randy wrote, produced and starred in the wildly successful hit comedy show, Toronto, From Zed to "Eh?" Since that time, the boys have been busy developing their next exciting project.

SCOTTY WATSON

Scotty Watson was head writer and Artistic Director of Comedy on Wry, a theatrical sketch comedy troupe where he wrote and performed sketch, stand-up, and pantomime since 1990. He was also the Executive Producer of C.O.W.'s self-titled CD.

Scotty was commissioned to write the inaugural show for the Tottenham Summer Theatre. He has written and performed for The Second City and freelances as a joke writer for television and radio. He has also served as an alternate clown in Cirque du Soleil's Mystere in Las Vegas since 1997.

Most recently Scotty was seen onstage at Stage West as Donnie in The Foursome and at The Elgin Theatre as Ping in Aladdin for Ross Petty Productions. Scotty's other theatre credits include The Good Times Are Killing Me at the Royal Alexandra Theatre and Matt Friedman in Talley's Folly.

Television and film credits include In a Heart Beat (Alliance Atlantis), Angels in the Infield (Walt Disney), Exhibit A (Discovery Channel), Side Effects (CBC), Mail to the Chief (CBS), Code Name - Eternity (FOX), Top Cops (CBS), Boogie's Diner (CHCH), and a comedy pilot for City TV.

However, Scotty is best recognized for his TV commercials. He dressed as Carmen Miranda for Sprite, made up as David Crosby for Kraft Dinner, donned red tights for a series of spots for Bell Mobility and claimed to be the first man to put his fries in the lid of the Big Mac box.

Friends for years, Scotty, Randy and Kevin wrote, produced and starred in the wildly successful hit comedy show, Toronto, From Zed to "Eh?" Since that time, the boys have been busy developing their next exciting project.
